The King's Head, Chigwell. The King's Head, Chigwell (close to Epping Forest), has been and still is a great house of call for verderers of the Chase, and gentlemen of the Hunt. Chigwell has an ancient parish church of its own, with a Norman arch over its south door. An extensive view is obtained from Chigwell Row over the south of Essex and the Thames into Kent. The Maypole Inn, famous in "Barnaby Rudge" was close to Chigwell, of which village Solomon Daisy was the bellringer.

Printed in England.
